

MEET YOUR REALTOR®

Meet Corey, a Real Estate Professional who is passionate about serving his clients and providing them with the best possible experience. Born and raised in Youngstown, Ohio, Corey spent 6 years stationed at Mountain Home Air Force Base, where he developed a deep appreciation for the natural beauty and close-knit communities of the Gem State.

Before entering the real estate industry, Corey worked in the food industry as a marketing assistant for 4 years. However, he wanted to do something bigger than himself and joined the U.S. Air Force as an F-15 Maintainer, where he learned the importance of service and dedication to the mission. Corey's experience honed his skills as an engaged listener, tenacious negotiator, and resourceful problem solver, making him an excellent choice as a Real Estate Professional.

When it came to choosing a brokerage, Amherst Madison was the only one that Corey looked at. He fell in love with the brokerage's values and mission, People First. Purpose Next. Profits Last. As a new agent with no prior experience, Amherst Madison gave Corey the tools and training he needed to become the best agent he could be. He proactively seeks out experts in all areas of real estate, pressing forward to grow and learn all he can on behalf of his clients.

As a veteran, Corey is grateful to give back by providing special understanding to those who have served our country in the Armed Forces. His dedication to service and mission has translated well into the fast-paced nature of the real estate industry. Corey understands the complex process of buying or selling a home, and he is committed to helping his clients navigate it with ease.

When working with Corey, prompt responses to inquiries and concerns are what you can expect. He understands that such a single-minded focus is the kind of commitment his clients deserve. Corey provides his clients with the highest level of service, information, and attention to detail, and always maintaining absolute integrity.

In his personal life, Corey is a devoted family man, husband to his high school sweetheart, and proud father to a 2-year-old son. Corey shares his home with two beloved dogs, a loyal German Shepherd, and a playful Boston Terrier. He enjoys spending time with his family, whether it's taking his son to the park, exploring new hiking trails with his dogs, or simply enjoying a cozy night in.

With a deep understanding of the local market and a steadfast dedication to his clients, Corey is the ideal partner for anyone looking to make a move in Idaho's dynamic real estate market.
